

What was everyday like in Ancient Greece?

Recap your understanding of what life was like in Athens and Sparta by watching <https://www.teachertube.com/videos/horrible-histories-wife-swap-spartans-and-athenians-305246>

Look through http://www.ancient-greece.co.uk/dailylife/home_set.html and find out more about what life was like. There are some games on here for you to explore further too! Have a go at making a model of a Greek house!

Colour code these statements. Green = Athens, Blue = Sparta, Red = both.

| | | |
|---|--|--|
| We welcome writing and reading. | Our women must not go outside unless they are with a man | We love reading and thinking about new ideas |
| Only a few rule here. We select 5 leaders each year. We have 2 kings who pass on the crown to their sons. | We do not welcome visitors to our city | Our young boys go to school |
| Writing and reading are discouraged here. Creativity gets in the way of being a good soldier. | Our women are fit and train to become soldiers in our armies. | The sea is very important to us |
| We are democratic and everyone gets the chance to have a say (if you are a man) | We keep slaves | We live near the sea and are outward looking. |
| We have a great land army. | We have a very strong navy. We are masters of the sea. | Only men are allowed to attend after dinner parties. |
| We are land-locked and nervous of invaders. | We worship our gods. | We love music and beauty. We are thinking people. |
| Our boys must become good fighters. They start training at 7. | Our women are not allowed to wear jewels or make-up but they do not have to do household chores. | Our women should be beautifully presented and decorated with jewels and make-up. |
| We welcome visitors to our city | We buy goods from other places and sell our goods to them | The sea gives us our protection and makes us feel safe |

Would you rather have lived in Sparta or Athens? Why? In our next ZOOM session, be ready to justify your answer!