

Tuesday 16th June 2020

Begin today's phonics session by joining in with Mr Mc's 'Boom Shake the Alphabet' song!

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Emb2yvwAHtc>

Practise these sounds...

Here is a song about igh and ie, it also show i-e and y, which you will learn in Year 1. Try to join in!

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=U60sOQxbO4I>

Here are the Blending Bookmarks for the sounds igh and ie.
Have a quick practise at reading them.

| BlendingBookmark - | BlendingBookmark - |
|------------------------|------------------------|
| igh                    | ie                     |
| high                   | pie                    |
| sigh                   | die                    |
| fight                  | lie                    |
| light                  | tie                    |
| right                  | lied                   |
| tight                  | tied                   |
| right                  | fried                  |
| bright                 | cried                  |
|                        | tried                  |
|                        | spied                  |

Now let's try these new Blending Bookmarks again! Try to put each word into a sentence.

| BlendingBookmark - | BlendingBookmark - |
|------------------------|------------------------|
| igh (part 2)           | ie (part 2)            |
| midnight               | untied                 |
| tonight                | spies                  |
| higher                 | flies                  |
| lightning              | porkpie                |
| sunlight               | dried                  |
| moonlight              | denied                 |
| delight                | replied                |
| frighten               | pliers                 |
| tighten                | skies                  |

Look at these pictures, use your sounds to write the word or a sentence for each one.

