

Almondsbury CE Primary School

Sundays Hill, Almondsbury, Bristol, BS32 4DS Headteacher: P D Smith
Tel: (01454) 612517 email: office@almondsburyprimary.co.uk

October 2020

3 November - 6 November 2020

Theme: BAME (Black, Asian, minority ethnic) authors and characters

Dear Parents

Book Week is fast approaching and takes place the first week after half term. We have tried to continue with our usual format and exciting activities but there will have to be adjustments and unfortunately some cancellations.

Tuesday 3 November – Friday 13 November PARENT FREE Scholastic Book Fair. This year the fair will be running for two weeks to allow time for each bubble to look at the books. You will be given a catalogue to browse beforehand and then will be able to fill out an online order form. All being well, we will be able to hold a proper book fair later on in the year when everyone will be welcome.

- We will 'Drop Everything and Read' on Tuesday 3 November so please make sure your child/children bring in a book to read on their own.
- Books at Bedtime – will not be held at school like other years but the children will still be invited to sign into Zoom every night from 6:30pm for a bedtime story read by one of the teachers. Don't forget your pyjamas and favourite teddy and the usual hot chocolate and a biscuit!
- Book Week Costumes – come dressed as a character from your favourite book on Friday 6 November. As always we are looking for interesting book characters and well thought out costumes.
- This year's Home Reading Challenge during half term is to recreate the front cover of a favourite book. You could do this by dressing up yourselves, by using toys and using craft ideas. Please send a photo of your book cover recreation to sarah.hake@almondsburyprimary.co.uk and we will share them with the school during book week. We will also have prizes for a winner of each key stage.

Warm regards,

Mrs Goode Mrs North Miss Hake Mr Allen
The English Team