WALT: use our senses to describe winter

Let's look back at the winter images.

Today we are going to think about how we use our senses at winter time!

WALT: use our senses to describe winter

Can you remember our five sense?

We have 5 senses in our body.

Our senses help us interpret the world around us!

WALT: use our senses to describe winter

1/12/20 WALT: use our senses to describe winter

How many words can you think of to describe winter using your senses?

	In winter I can see...
	In winter I can hear...
	In winter I can taste...
	In winter I can touch...
	In winter I can smell...

Today's activity
is to write a list of words for each of the 5 senses related to winter.
