Ben

I am now going to put this information into a short story.

One sunny day in the North Pole, Ben was taking a gentle walk along the ice. He came to a hole in the ice and looked over the edge. He could see the deep, blue water swishing around so he bent down to look closer.

All of a sudden, a huge creature leapt out of the water and landed on the ice. Ben fell back and closed his eyes tight. When he opened his eyes, he could see thick, white fur and 2 small, black eyes looking at him. It was a polar bear. The polar bear held out his paw and said in a deep voice "Come with me, I have something to show you".

Now it is your turn!

Can you write who will be your main character, your setting and which animal they will meet.

Draw a picture from your story and have a go at writing it.

It only needs to be a short story. Try and think of something exciting like swimming with a polar bear or sledging with arctic fox.
