WALT: TFW the story of Lost and Found

Once there was a boy and one day he found a penguin at his door. The penguin looked unhappy and the boy thought it must be lost. He wanted to help the penguin but he didn't know how.

The next morning he discovered that penguins come from the South Pole. But how could he get there? He ran down to the harbour and asked a big ship to take them to the South Pole but his voice was much too small to be heard over the ship's horn.

The boy decided he and the penguin would row to the South Pole. The boy took his rowing boat out of the cupboard and they packed everything they would need. Together they pushed the boat out to sea.

They rowed south for many days and nights. The boy told stories all the way and the penguin listened to everything that the boy said. They floated through sunshine, thunderstorms and rainbows. Sometimes the waves were as big as mountains until they came to the freezing, icy white South Pole.
