I am going to use my story planner to write my quest story

One sunny day Jack went to the lo local park with his friends. He took his favourite toy, Ellie the grey elephant with him. As soon as Jack got to the park he ran over to his friends and started to play. After a while Jack, realised that he no had Ellie! Where could Ellie be? Jack was feeling very sad!

Jack and friends decided to look for Ellie. First they looked on the bug green swing, but Ellie was not there.

After that Jack went to look under the huge, yellow, shiny slide. But Ellie was not there. Next Jack looked behind the Old Oak tree. But still Ellie was no where to be seen. Finally Jack looked under the brown, wooden bench and there was Ellie. Jack was so pleased and he hugged Ellie tight.
