

Wednesday 13th January WALT:- To draw a TFW story map for Lost and Found.

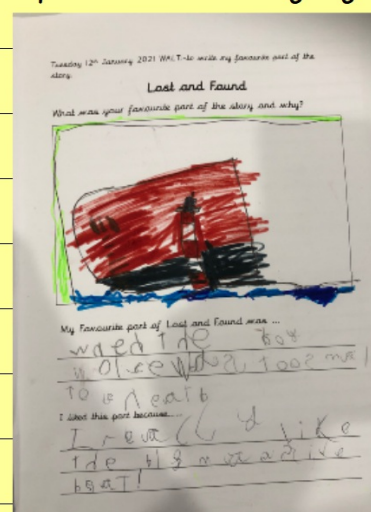

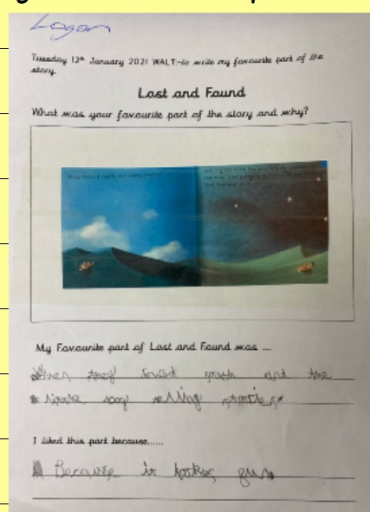

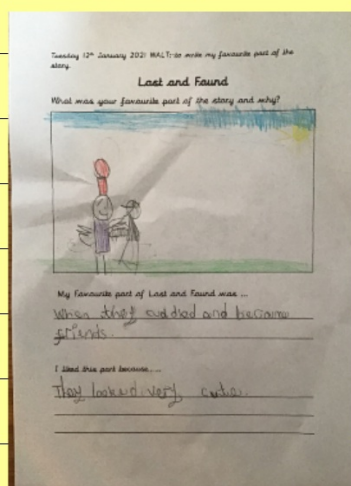

Yesterday we read the story Lost and Found together.

We talked about our favourite parts

Wednesday 13th January WALT:- To draw a TFW story map for Lost and Found

You choose your favourite parts and explained why you liked them.

because it looks fun.

They looked very cute.

I really liked the big massive boat.

Thank you for handing in your favourite part work yesterday.

Some very neat handwriting with letters sitting on the lines and finger spaces between the words. Some great explanations of why you liked part in the story.

Wednesday 13th January WALT:- To draw a TFW story map for Lost and Found

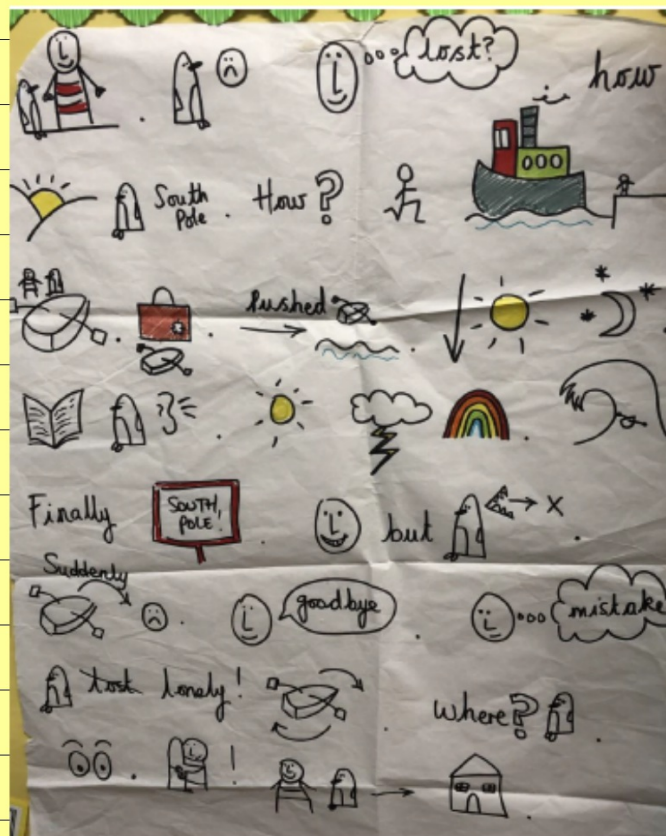

Let's read the story again.

Wednesday 13th January WALT:- To draw a TFW story map for Lost and Found

Today we are going to learn the story as a
Talk For Writing!

Here is the story map

Wednesday 13th January WALT:- To draw a TFW story map for Lost and Found

Today we are going to learn the story as a

Talk For Writing!

The beginning of the

Lost and Found by Oliver Jeffers

Once there was a boy and one day he found a penguin at his door. The penguin looked unhappy and the boy thought it must be lost. He wanted to help the penguin but he didn't know how.

The next morning he discovered that penguins come from the South Pole. But how could he get there? He ran down to the harbour and asked a big ship to take them to the South Pole but his voice was much too small to be heard over the ship's horn.

Wednesday 13th January WALT:- To draw a TFW story map for Lost and Found

Today we are going to learn the story as a

Talk For Writing!

The middle of the story

The boy decided he and the penguin would row to the South Pole. The boy took his rowing boat out of the cupboard and they packed everything they would need. Together they pushed the boat out to sea.

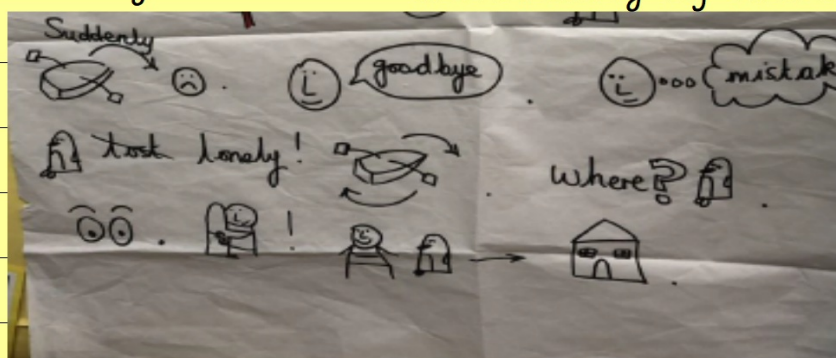

They rowed south for many days and nights. The boy told stories all the way and the penguin listened to everything that the boy said. They floated through sunshine, thunderstorms and rainbows. Sometimes the waves were as big as mountains until they came to the freezing, icy white South Pole.

Wednesday 13th January WALT:- To draw a TFW story map for Lost and Found

Today we are going to learn the story as a

Talk For Writing!

The ending of the story

The boy was delighted but the penguin said nothing. Suddenly it looked sad again as the boy helped it out of the boat. The boy said goodbye and floated away. It felt strange to be on his own and the more he thought, the more he realised he was making a big mistake. The penguin wasn't lost. He was just lonely.

Quickly he turned the boat around and headed back to the South Pole. At last he was there again. But where was the penguin? The boy searched and searched. Finally he found the penguin! The boy and his friend went home together, talking of wonderful things all the way.

Wednesday 13th January WALT:- To draw a TFW story map for Lost and Found

Now it's your turn! Can you draw a TFW story map for Lost and Found?

Lost and Found by Oliver Jeffers

Once there was a boy and one day he found a penguin at his door. The penguin looked unhappy and the boy thought it must be lost. He wanted to help the penguin but he didn't know how.

The next morning he discovered that penguins come from the South Pole. But how could he get there? He ran down to the harbour and asked a big ship to take them to the South Pole but his voice was much too small to be heard over the ship's horn.

The boy decided he and the penguin would row to the South Pole. The boy took his rowing boat out of the cupboard and they packed everything they would need. Together they pushed the boat out to sea.

They rowed south for many days. Told stories all the way and th everything that the boy said. T sunshine, thunderstorms and r waves were as big as mountain the freezing, icy while South Po

The boy was delighted but the Suddenly it looked sad again c of the boat. The boy said goodb felt strange to be on his own a the more he realised he was no penguin wasn't lost. He was ju Quickly he turned the boat arou the South Pole. At last he was l was the penguin? The boy searc Finally he found the penguin! T went home together, talking of the way.

Wednesday 13th January

WALT:- to create a TFW story map of Lost and Found

Using the class TFW story map and short version of the text, create your own story map and have a go at learning the story with actions.

Use the text version of the story map and our class version to help you.

Remember you only include the important parts of the story