Clair at the Funfair

It was hot. Clair sat on a chair to put on a pair of red flip-flops.

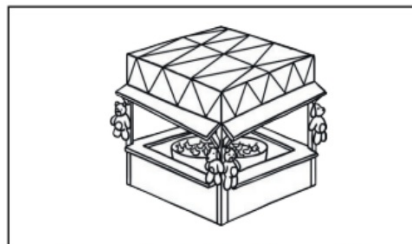

Then, she brushed her short hair and put in a clip.

After that, she set off to the park. Clair went to the funfair at the park. The fair was fun.

At the park, she met Gair. They went to get a ticket together. The fair ticket was silver.

Clair and Gair had lots of fun. Clair went to the hook-a-duck. She got a duck and then a doll.

Gair had to finish at the fair, as his mum was waiting. He felt it was unfair, as Clair was still at the park. He might go back again.

WALT: Use our imagination to go on an adventure

In Lost and Found, the Penguin uses an upside down umbrella to float in the ocean.

If you went on an adventure in an umbrella, where would you go?

Rainforest

Arctic

London

WALT: Use our imagination to go on an adventure

In my adventure, I would sail to London. I would row up the River Thames and I would visit the London Eye, Tower Bridge, Buckingham Palace and the Shard. It would be so exciting because London is a massive city with lots of people. I would take a ride on a red bus, a black taxi and the London Underground. If I'm lucky I might even go to Wembley Stadium to watch a incredible football match. After my adventure, I would pop my umbrella back into the river and row home.

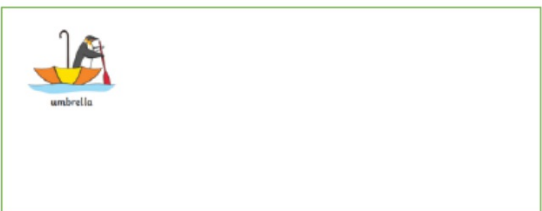

WALT: Use our imagination to go on an adventure

Have a go at drawing a picture of where you would go on your adventure in your umbrella.

Write about how you get there, what you can see and do there and how you get home.

Try and use a list of commas in your writing.

WALT: Use your imagination to go on an adventure

In the story, the penguin uses an upside down umbrella for his journey. Imagine you could row to a different land in your umbrella. Where would you go? What would you see? What would you do?
Draw a picture of where you go and then write about what it is like there. Try to describe what is there using noun phrases and commas.
