

Last lesson, we were describing using our senses

Use your senses to describe the Arctic
I can see 	big, busy polar bears on a tiny iceberg in Arctic for bending into the snow and distant snowy mountains.
I can hear 	I can hear the ice from the sea, the ice is crashing and the water and the polar bearings.
I can feel 	The freezing ice is the cold, the cold wind blowing on my face and the snow crunching under my feet.
I can smell 	The strong smell from the mineral oil, the baking on the fire and the strong hot metal.
I can taste 	The salty taste of the seawater and the salty sea water.

I can hear 	I can hear the crunchy snow the melting wind and the ice cracking
