

Last lesson we were changing our story maps

Great imagination to change your stories

You changed the correct parts like we asked

Make sure you use your plan to help you write your story

Hot Task - Write a story based on Lost and Found

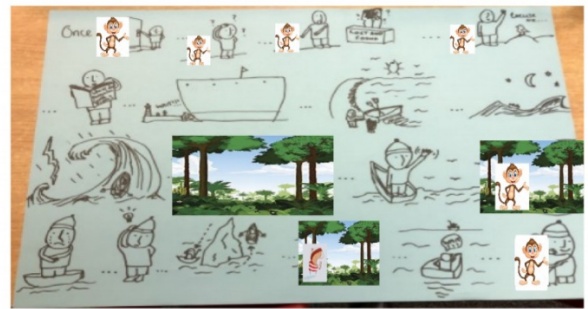

Today we are going to write the first half of our stories

Hot Task - Write a story based on Lost and Found

What have we learnt?

- descriptive noun phrases
- describing using our senses
- commas in a list
- contraction apostrophes
- connectives

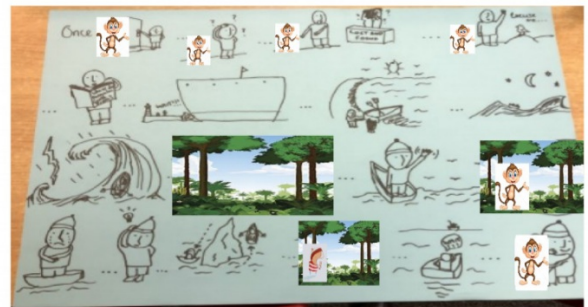

Once, there was a boy who found a monkey at his door. He did not know where it had come from and he thought it must be lost. He took it to the Lost and Found Office, then he asked the birds.

Hot Task - Write a story based on Lost and Found

What have we learnt?

- descriptive noun phrases
- describing using our senses
- commas in a list
- contraction apostrophes
- connectives

Once there was a small, young boy and one day he found a cute, furry monkey at his door. He was confused as to where the monkey had come from and didn't know what to do. He thought it must be lost so he took him down to the Lost and Found office.

Hot Task - Write a story based on Lost and Found

Now, you are going to write the first half of your stories

