Yesterday we were writing the second half of our story using our story boards

What have we learnt?

- descriptive noun phrases
- describing using our senses
- commas in a list
- contraction apostrophes
- connectives

once upon a time there lived a boy called Eli.
He lived in a house with his family. one day there was a knock at the brown wooden door. Eli opened the door and to his surprise was a whale.
The whale was feeling upset. The whale was lonely, wanted a hull and a steering to go on an adventure. But where do whales go for their adventures?

Great power of 2 noun phrases and commas in a list

Then he asked some pigeons if they knew where it had come from.
In the morning he discovered that bold headed eagle come from the north of USA so he asked a big ship if it could take them there. But, the little boy's voice was too small and soft to be heard over the loud, belching horn of the ship. After they decided to row to the North America, so the boy got a colourful row boat it was a bit rusty so they mended it for size and strength.

Try to describe using our senses and follow the story board

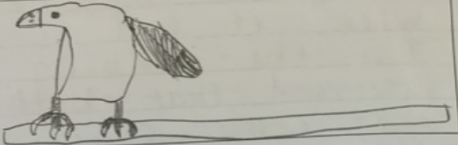

The little boy raced back to the rainforest to try and find the small, brown monkey. He looked high and low, but couldn't see him through the thick, green trees. The lonely boy was devastated and began to row his boat back home. But suddenly he noticed something floating in the distance! He rowed even harder to try get closer, finally he was close enough to see... it was the monkey! The little boy jumped, screamed and cried out in joy. The boy gave the soft, fluffy monkey a big hug and they promised to never leave each other again.

When you have finished, you are going to read your story and try and come up with actions for it.

Hot Task - Write a story based on Lost and Found

Draw a picture from your story
